LOCATION

Racine Art Museum (RAM) is located in downtown Racine, Wustum is less than 10 minutes away. Racine is a historic community on the shores of Lake Michigan, approximately 70 miles north of Chicago, 25 miles south of Milwaukee and 100 miles east of Madison.

ARCHITECTURE

RAM is an environmentally sound and visually striking, modern reuse of two nineteenth-century structures. Chicago-based architects Brininstool+Lynch reinvented the space in 2003 to create this award-winning 40,000 square foot art museum.

Wustum is an 1856 Italianate-style home surrounded by 13 acres of park and gardens

AMENITIES AND ACTIVITIES

In addition to exhibitions and architecture tours, RAM offers a unique museum store with extraordinary one-of-a-kind gifts and artful souvenirs. Tours may add on intriguing hands-on art projects.

NEARBY

Racine is the home to Frank Lloyd Wright's SC Johnson Administration Building and several Wright homes, including Wingspread. Within walking distance to RAM are galleries, unique shops, and restaurants. Also nearby is the lakefront Racine Zoological Society, and Racine's beautiful North Beach that has received prestigious environmental awards.
