MOUNT PLEASANT – Trustees say they have never received more calls about an issue than about where trailer-type vehicles should be allowed to park.

But after nearly a year of debate, the Mount Pleasant Village Board on Monday decided its rules are fine the way they are – keeping intact an ordinance prohibiting trailers, boats, campers and other such vehicles to be parked on driveways. The impact on aesthetics of the neighborhood drove Monday's 6-1 vote against relaxing the ordinance. Trustee Ken Otwaska cast the one vote in favor of a proposal, which would have allowed vehicles 40 feet or fewer in length to be parked on driveways on residential lots one-half acre or fewer, and with no limit on size on lots more than one-half acre.

“What it comes down to is, how do you want your neighborhood to look?” Trustee Dave DeGroot said. He noted he has a motor home, adding “my beautiful motor home might be somebody else's visual pollution.”

As the ordinance stands, trailers and commercial equipment less than 30 feet long have to be parked in back or side yards. Equipment longer than 30 feet must be stored indoors.

The issue arose last year after a dispute between neighbors. Resident Jeff Loken, one of the neighbors involved who pushed for changes, said the enforcement
