Visual arts community highlighted in exhibit

RACINE — The Racine Art Museum Artist Fellowship Program aims to showcase the diversity and vitality of the Racine/Kenosha visual arts community by supporting the professional development of its artists.

The second biennial exhibition, "RAM Artist Fellowship Exhibition 2015," will open with a preview and opening reception from 6 to 8 p.m. Thursday, Aug. 27, at Wustum Museum, a campus of the Racine Art Museum at 2519 Northwestern Ave.

The exhibit features the work of Bill Reid of Racine, and Diane Levesque, Lisa Marie Barber and Jim Sincock of Kenosha.

The exhibit continues through Nov. 28. Wustum Museum is open from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Tuesday through Saturday. There is no admission fee.

FUNDRAISERS

Jubilee and HOPE Safehouse Fundraiser scheduled for Sunday

RACINE — The first Jubilee and HOPE Safehouse Fundraiser will be held from 1 to 9 p.m. Sunday, Aug. 30, at George's Tavern, 1201 N. Main St.

The fundraiser will include a meet and greet with adoptable pets from 1 to 5 p.m., and beer tastings by the Pecatonica Beer Co. from 1 to 3 p.m.

Live music will be provided by Ralph "Lonesome Woody" Woods (rock, country, folk) from 1 to 3 p.m., 2 Week Notice (classic rock) from 3:30 to 5:30 p.m. and David Gans (country and blues style fingerpicking) from 6 to 8:30 p.m.

Food and pet-related items will be sold and door prizes awarded. A raffle and bake sale will be held.

Admission is $5; the beer tasting wristband is a separate $5 donation. A portion of the proceeds will support HOPE Safehouse, a no-kill animal shelter. HOPE shirts will be sold.
