

What's Happening

The Journal Times Thursday, February 2, 2012
page editor: Loren I. Mohr

9

Vases made by Karen Karnes are part of the exhibit, "A Chosen Path: The Ceramic Art of Karen Karnes," being shown through May 27 at the Racine Art Museum, 441 Main St. See "Art."

Return to Romance

Feb. 11 — Bong State Recreation Area, 26313 Burlington Road, Brighton. 7-9 p.m. (drop in until 8:30 p.m.). $5, $1 children. Park entrance fee is $7 per vehicle. Take a candlelit hike, sip cocoa by a bonfire, enjoy homemade desserts in decorated Visitor Center to music. Advance payment and registration required, call (262) 878-5600. Sponsored by the Bong Naturalist Association for park improvements.

Night of Enchantment

Feb. 11 — Concordia Lutheran School, 8500 Durand Ave., Sturtevant. 5:30 p.m. Elegant dinner, silent and live auctions, and decadent dessert sampling. $35. Call (262) 884-0991 for tickets. Proceeds go toward the students' academic and technological enrichment.

Polar Plunge

Feb. 11 — Brat Stop parking lot, 12304 75th St. (I-94 and Highway 50), Kenosha. 10 a.m.-1:30 p.m. Opening ceremony and plunging begins at noon; post plunge party, 2-9 p.m. Proceeds benefit Special Olympics Wisconsin. Go to www.specialolympicswisconsin.org.

Joe Danielson Benefit

Feb. 18 — Jantz's Club, 2604 Washington Road, Kenosha. 3-11 p.m. $5 (includes food) | live music.

registration form, call (262) 878-1214, visit Union Grove Lumber or True Value Hardware in Union Grove or go to www.uniongrovechamber.org.

ET CETERA

Visitor Information Center Open House

Feb. 3 — Kenosha Area Convention & Visitors Bureau, 10519 120th Ave. (I-94 and Highway 165). Noon-3 p.m. Free. Featured exhibitors are the Kenosha Public Museum, Civil War Museum, Dinosaur Discovery Museum, Holiday Inn Express Hotel & Suites (with a chance to win a free hotel stay) and Forever Grateful Resale Boutique and Art Gallery.

Union Grove Village Drum Circle

Feb. 7 — Facilitated by Scott Cincotta, a retired high school band director. 6:30 p.m. $5. Drums provided or people may bring their own. 3131 67th Drive, Union Grove.

FILMS

Golden Dandelion Theater