Food Art Collage

March is National Nutrition Month and Women's History Month. Celebrate both by creating your own food art collage inspired by polymer artist Lindly Haunani’s piece, Sushi Platter.

Lindly Haunani is a founding member of the National Polymer Clay Guild. She is also the author of Color Inspirations and the producer of a series of DVDs entitled, Confident Color. Haunani’s lively, vibrant, and sometimes, humorous work relies on color as a key design element. RAM’s collection includes several of her polymer works, such as various neckpieces, a sushi platter, and an asparagus-themed adornment.

Lindly Haunani

Sushi Platter, 1992
Polymer, powdered pigment, and metal leaf
2 1/2 x 8 1/2 x 5 1/4 inches
Racine Art Museum,
Gift of the Artist
Photography: Penina Meisels

Supplies

- Paper
- Magazines, photos, or newspaper
- Scissors
- Glue stick
Instructions

1. Cut out food images, plates, silverware, tablecloths, and other related images from magazines and other sources.

2. Arrange your food images.

3. Glue your food images onto your paper.

Example of project