Adding to the excitement of Wright & Like 2016 coming this June, Racine Art Museum hosts a special exhibition honoring Frank Lloyd Wright. Open Saturday, June 4 and Sunday, June 5, Responding to Frank Lloyd Wright: Richard Davies and Frances Myers celebrates one of America's greatest architectural talents as well as two famed printmakers in RAM's collection.

British artist Richard Davies and Wisconsin artist Frances Myers have both been inspired by the famed architect. Operating independently, they each produced print series that use Wright buildings as subject matter; exploring the structure of various sites, as well as playing with pattern, form, and design. Examples from both artists are juxtaposed in this special exhibition drawn directly from RAM's collection.

Wright & Like tour participants will receive reduced museum admission by showing their tour tickets. The Museum Store is also presenting a full line of Frank Lloyd Wright merchandise including unique works of art by Wisconsin artists.

The Wright & Like 2016 tour features guided interior tours of private homes and public buildings by Frank Lloyd Wright and his contemporaries. This year's theme Sixty Years of Organic Architecture begins in 1905 with Frank Lloyd Wright's lakefront Thomas P. Hardy House and concludes in 1965 with The Prairie School in nearby Wind Point, designed by Wright's apprentice Charles Montooth and Taliesin Architects. Along with being a tour site, the Prairie School will act as tour headquarters on Saturday providing a place to purchase last minute tickets.

The Racine Art Museum has one of North America's largest contemporary craft collection, with more than 9,500 objects. Its focus is on work from internationally recognized artists in ceramics, fibers, glass, metals and wood, as well as painting, sculpture and works on paper. RAM is open Saturdays from 10:00 am – 5:00 pm and Sundays from Noon – 5:00 pm. An @Jeff. Good question. I'll tweak the title of the press release.

Thanks
