Crack the Code to the Watercolor Wisconsin 2020 Scavenger Hunt!

Explore the artwork to find the clues. Follow the instructions, and see if you can find the correct letters for each clue. Write them down in the spaces below, and unscramble them to discover the secret art phrase!

1. This painting, by artist Regina Baker, uses pattern and texture to convey a specific mood. Take the last letter of the first word in the title and write it here: ___

2. This piece by Sandra Willard, is a one-of-a-kind artist book. What is the first letter of the text written under the bird image?
   Write here: ___

3. This piece is entitled The Grapplers. Search for the artist’s name. What is the third letter in their last name?
   Write here: ___

4. Christine B. Miller utilizes a multitude of materials in this watercolor piece. What is the last letter of the first word in the title?
   Write here: ___
5. This painting looks real, but the artist used a style called trompe l’oeil which is meant to trick the eye. What is the first letter of the artist’s first name? Write here: ____

6. Artist Harold Hansen uses symmetry to present architecture in this scene. What is the second to last letter in the title? Write here: ___

7. Sandra Willard created this artist book using watercolor, ink, and found objects. What is the second to last letter in the artist’s last name? Write here: ___

8. This painting was made with a specific kind of water based material. What is the first letter of the medium? Write here: ___

Match the number from the questions above with the found letter and write them down here:

| 4 | 1 | 5 | 6 | 3 | 1 | 2 | 7 | 8 |

Did you crack the code?