

RAM's Wustum Museum: Outdoor Scavenger Hunt

Scavenger hunts are great fun! You get to stroll through Wustum's gardens and enjoy the sun. Find a tool, like a pen, and follow the clues to make it to the end!

1. When you walk along the sidewalk, which you just might, how many giraffes do you see shining in the light?

TOTAL GIRAFFES: _____

2. Next on your walk as you stroll by a tree, how many goat statues do you see?

TOTAL GOATS: _____

3. There are some METAL statues of women standing tall. One is a fountain where water falls. What number would count them all?

TOTAL METAL WOMEN STATUES: _____

4. Here's another question while you wander outside, how many horses do you see men try to ride?

TOTAL HORSES: _____

5. While your scavenging around for sculptures please do, make sure to count the pelicans that are waiting for you.

TOTAL PELICANS: _____

6. Artist Chery Barr Jerry created a mosaic on the buildings wall that stands so tall! Find the St. Francis figure and write your reply, just how many hands is he waving to the sky?

TOTAL HANDS: _____

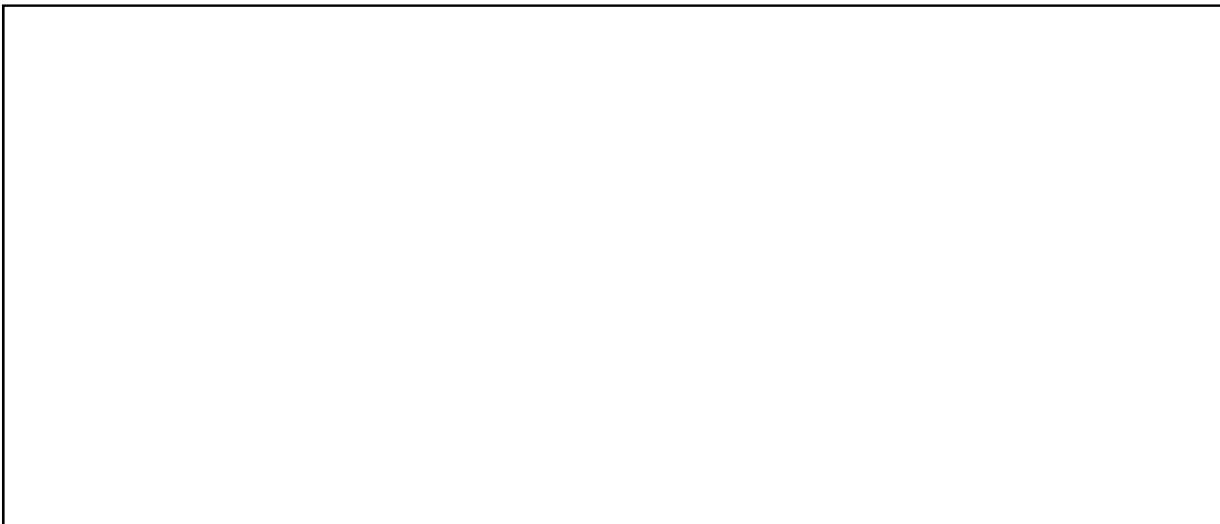

Write your answers in order here:

Add up all your numbers and where do you stand?

1. ____ 2. ____ 3. ____ 4. ____ 5. ____ 6. ____ TOTAL: _____

Here's the last clue, it rhymes with the tool in your hand! Answer: _____

Now kick up your feet and relax. You've just solved Wustum's outdoor scavenger hunt, you deserve some snacks!

Sketch
your favorite sculpture
in the box!