

R|A|M

Crack the Code to the Watercolor Wisconsin 2019 Scavenger Hunt!

Explore the artwork find to the clues. Follow instructions and see if you can find the correct letters for each clue. Write them down in the spaces below and unscramble them to discover the secret art word!

1) This painting of a book looks real, by artist Harold E. Hansen....in fact it fools the eye, which is a style of art called trompe l'oeil. Write down the seventh letter of the BOOK title shown here: _____

4) This painting is titled Family Circle by artist Cary Hunkel, depicts a family of elephants. What is another name for this order of mammals?

Take the third letter of the answer and write it here:

2) Five perfectly patterned pots are painted in Vessel Series #11 by artist Lisa Englander. Take the last letter of the title and write it here: _____

5) This artwork by Julie San Felipe, is based on a Japanese folk story about a man and a bird. What kind of bird is it? Hint: The name of the bird is found in the title, which you can find on ramart.org. Second letter in the bird word: _____

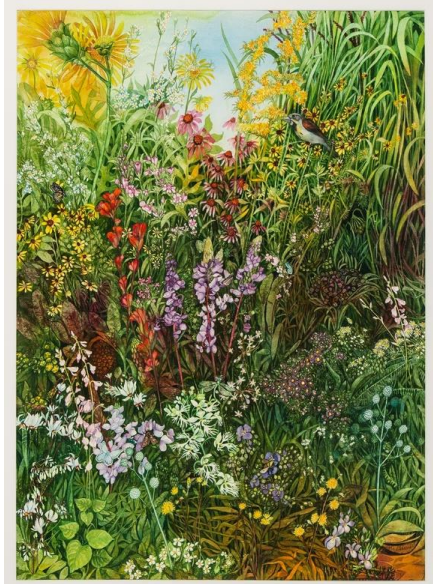

3) Look closely at this portrait by artist Regina Baker called Summer Hair. What color are her eyes? Take the second letter of this color and write it here:

6) This artist-made book was created by artist JoAnna Poehlmann. Can you find the title? Hint: it is a type of mushroom that sounds like the word moral. What is the second letter in this mushroom type: _____

7) Disappearing Prairies 1 by artist Helen Klebesadel is full of birds, bees, and butterflies! Look closely, can find them all? They are hiding in the colorful flowers. This painting has all the colors in the color wheel- can you name them all? Red, green, blue, orange, purple and _____. What color is missing? Write the last letter of this missing color: _____

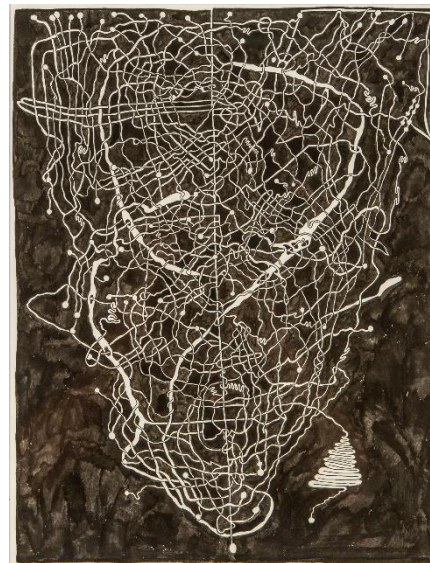

9) Lois Freeber-Hagen has created a painting within a painting in this piece titled Invermoriston, which is also a place in this country:

_____ Write the third letter here: _____

8) This painting titled Heading Home by artist Carlotta Miller and shows a painting of the outdoors. What is a painting of the outdoors called?

_____ Write the first letter here: _____

10) Underground colonies are shown in this artwork by artist Kiefer Ledell Waterman. What kind of insects make these underground dwellings?

_____ Write down the third letter here: _____

Take each of the letters from the questions above and write them down here:

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

Unscramble the letters to see if you can crack the code and find the secret art word:
