Brooklyn Rider

FRANKLY MUSIC

April 8

St. Paul's Episcopal Church (914 E. Knapp St.) is the venue. Frankly Music brings instrumental quartet Brooklyn Rider to Milwaukee for a concert that explores the healing properties of music, which have been recognized since ancient Greece. Music of Ludwig van Beethoven—as well as new works by Reena Esmail, Gabriela Lena Frank, Matana Roberts and others—is on tap to soothe the proverbial soul. (John Jahn)

EARLY MUSIC NOW

April 13

Early Music Now's motto, "Across Borders-Across Time," has never stretched as far as in this concert by the monks of the Drepung Loseling Monastery. The ensemble has become a cultural embassy for Tibet, and their multi-millennial old repertoire makes the early music of Europe sound like last year's hit parade. (David Lührssen)

PROMETHEUS TRIO

April 22-23

Works on this Prometheus Trio concert are, for the most part, fairly modern and somewhat obscure. Compositions range from the late-19 century to just a few decades ago. These include the Fantasia for Violin and Piano, D. 934, by Franz Schubert; Cello Sonata No. 2, H. 286 (1941), by Czech composer Bohuslav Martinů; Sonate pour Violon et Violoncelle, Op. 73 (1922), by Maurice Ravel; and American composer Paul Schoenfield's Café Music (1986). (John Jahn)

April 28 and May 5

The April concert is at St. Christopher's Episcopal Church, 7845 N. River Road in River Hills; the May concert is at Congregation Shalom, 7630 N. Santa Monica Blvd., Fox Point. Both will be focused on the choral music of the great American composer-conductor Leonard Bernstein (1918-'90). His finest works include West Side Story, Peter Pan, Candide, Wonderful Town, On the Town, On the Waterfront and his epic Mass. (John Jahn)

OPENING:

"Catherine Lottes: A Mirror to the Soul of Nature"

ALFONS GALLERY
April 7-June 2

Milwaukee-based artist Catherine Lottes' professional art career began with a series of public art pieces commissioned by the city and county. She is now most known for her symmetrical, kaleidoscope-esque pieces that are created by mirroring images from her nature photographs. The works are inspired by the spiritual aspects of being among the trees, as well as a sense of balance and harmony that comes with symmetry. The exhibition opens with an artist conversation with Lottes. (Rob Hullum)

"10th Annual International PEEPS Art Exhibition"

RACINE ART MUSEUM
April 11-28

RAM's unconventionally saccharine showcase of art inspired by or composed of PEEPS, the signature, chick-shaped marshmallow treat, celebrates its 10th year this upcoming spring. Boasting a collection of imaginative paintings, sculptures, quilts and multimedia art pieces featuring the seasonal sugar-coated candy, museum-goers are encouraged to nominate their favorite works for the coveted title of PEEPls Choice. April 26-July 6

Every year since 2012, Walker's Point Center for the Performing Arts (WPCA) has selected four artists to participate in small scale, 10-week solo exhibitions at the gallery. This spring's featured artist is Conhg Lopez, a Milwaukee-based multi-disciplinary artist who recently presented 2-D artwork at the WPCA's Dia de los Muertos exhibition. Lopez also participated in WPCA's 31 Emerge event in December 2017, an exhibition showcasing 31 of Milwaukee's best up-and-coming artists. (Rob Hullum)
