COMMUNITY BRIEFS

Volunteers needed to help build beds

The Racine/Kenosha Chapter of Sleep in Heavenly Peace will celebrate the five-year anniversary of the first beds it built and delivered on June 10.

sary of the first beds it built and delivered on June 10.

SHP is hosting a build day at Bane-Nelson Inc., 4019 437d St., Kenosha.

If has assembled enough wood for 100 beds, and hopes that with the community's help, it can build 100 beds for children in Racine and Kenosha.

and Kenosha.
To sign up to volunteer, register at https://sleepinheavenlypeace.
my.site.com/Volunteering/s.
41:330 p.m., a celebration picnic will be held across the street from the bed building site.
There will be live music by The Affordables, food, awafe special guest Luke Midkelson, SHP founder and executive director.

rector.
The free event is open to the first 125 people to sign up at signupgenius.com/go/70a0b44a9ad2ea5f94-5than-

Volunteers at SHP have built and delivered 1,462 beds to chil-dren ages 3-17 who did not have proper beds.

Summer reading program at Carthage

KENOSHA — Carthage College's Hedberg Library is offering the summer reading program Tickets to Adventure" from June 5 through July 28.

5 through July 28. The program is open to youth 17 and younger. Parents can register their children, pick up their program packets and library cards, and record their readings throughout the summer. Prizes will be awarded when reading goals are met, and there will be four themed programs to attend.

attend.
The end of the program will be celebrated with a pizza party and games on the library lawn.
To register, or for more information, go to https://go.evvnt.com/1763480-0.

Environmental task force created

RACINE — Racine Interfaith Coalition celebrated Earth Day this year by introducing its now-est task force, the Environmental Justice Task Force.

The task force will work to fight eco injustices, which are the er eco miustices, which are the ex-posure of poor and marginalized communities to harms from haz-ardous waste, resource extraction and other land uses from which they do not receive benefits.

they do not receive benefits.
Lead poisoning is a statewide tragecy that disproportionately targets children in Racine.
According to the Department of Health Services' 2014 Report on Childhood Lead Poisoning in Wisconsin, "if lead poisoning in children were eliminated, the state would save $7 billion in costs for medical treatment, special education, and crime and juvenile delinquency."

delinquency."

The Rights of Nature move ment, another focus of the eco justice task force, believes that justice task force, believes that human beings are meant to live in community with the other living things of our Earth.

"I'm excited to help reach our task force goals to defend all forms of life on earth by building relationships with other environmental groups and all who are interested in promoting eco justice; said Linda Boyle, RIC co-president. "The RIC Eco Nustice Task Force welcomes anyone who is in-Force welcomes anyone who is interested in helping eradicate eco injustices." for more information, email ine1993@gmail.com or call 262-635-9537

Selkowe honored with financial award

RACINE – Gov. Tony Evers has enored Vicky Selkowe, manager of strategic initiatives and com munity partnerships for the City of Racine, for her role in launching the Racine Financial Empowerent Center the Bacine Financial Empower-ment Center.

FEC offers free, one-on-one-professional financial counseling to Racline residents.
If helps residents reduce debt, improve credit and budget, save, and connect to saie and affordable financial products.
The FEC also works to help residents plan for home ownership. It is the first center of its kind in Wisconsin and joins the national network of financial empower-ment centers led by the Cities for Financial Empowerment Fund. Selkowe attended an award reception in April to accept the ward, along with other state-wide awardees. Also in attendance was Dashelis Kidd, FEC manager and Racine program manager for Housing Resources inc.
"I was thrilled to accept this award with Dashelis Kidd from Dasheika Kidd, left, FEC manager and Racine program manager for Housing Resources Inc., and Vicky Selkowe, manager of strategic initiatives and community partnerships for the City of Racine.

Housing Resources Inc. in recognition of the work we've done together." Selkow said. "Ithis work sic entral to Mayor Cory Mason's efforts to address longstanding denty justin Peternan, treasurer; door to opportunity, stability and prosperity for all city residents."

Hiero groups (In December 1997) Directors elected the following of mers for the coming sent at a septiment of the continuous and prosperity for all city residents."

Directors elected the following of mers for the coming sent at a septiment of the coming sent at a septiment of the committee of the prosperity for all city residents." Since opening in December 2020, the Ractine FEC has served 501 residents, 50.2% who iden-tity as Black, 17% who identify as Hispanic/Latino and 5% who identify as multiracial. More than three-quarters of FEC clients identify as female. Ractine residents are encouraged to visit racinelec. ong for a free ap-to visit racinefec.org for a free ap-pointment for this financial coun-seling.

RAM announces new Board of Directors

RACINE — The Racine Art Museum Association Inc. elected a slate of new candidates for the museum's Board of Directors for initial three-year terms and returning board members for second three-year terms at the May ic annual meeting.
Elected for an initial three-year term, were Linea Authony and term were Linea Anthony and Nichole Elcano.

Elected for a second three-year erm were Carl Hipp and Justin rterman.

Retiring board members hon-ced for their service included en Flegel, Diane Ruffo and Neil taeck. In addition, the RAMA Board of Directors elected the following of-fecrs for the coming year at a sep-arate session following the annual meeting John Crimmings, presi-ent; Justin Peterman, treasurer; and Clair Holland, secretary. RAMA oversees operations and programming for the Racine Art Museum and Charles A. Wustum Museum of Fine Arts.

Waterford library celebrates program

WATERFORD — Waterford Public Library staff and patrons recently celebrated the comple-tion of the Alphabet Lab with an 'ABC" party.

The special guest was Kelly

Klein, co-owner of Reads by the River Books and Gifts, who spon-sored Alphabet Lab with a $1,000 donation.

Klein explained why literacy is Klein explained why literacy is so important to the library and her bookstore, and said that she was happy to support the program. Alphabet Lab, as the name sug-gests, is an early-literacy program teaching the alphabet to children 4 and younger. Play, movement, sound, visuals and American Sign Language are used to make learn-ing about the alphabet fun.

Be a beach cleanup volunteer in Racine

RACINE - With the arrival of spring comes the kickoff to the annual cleaning of Great Lakes beaches and shorelines through beaches and shorelines through the Alliance for the Great Lakes' Adopt-a-Beach program. Volunteers can register at adopt. greathakes.org/s/find-a-cleanup for cleanup event in Racine. Adopt-a-Beach volunteers come from all eight Great Lakes states and all walks of life, incub, and wouth group, businesses and and wouth groups, businesses and and south groups, businesses and and south groups. and youth groups, businesses and community organizations.

Wright trail includes Racine County

SPRING GREEN - Taliesin Preservation has launched a new Frank Lloyd Wright Trail website, trail tracker and updated app. The website, FrankLloyd-Wright Trail.org, maps and con-nects nine public Wright sites along 200 miles in southern Wis-consin, including the SC folmson consin, including the SC Johnson Administrative Building and Research Tower in Racine, and The Johnson Foundation at Wing-spread in Wind Point.

spread in Wind Point.
Visitors camplan their trip with the updated app or track their progress with the Trail Tracker and receive a Frank Lloyd Wright trail badge to share on social media dia.

The website also provides information about America's most iconic architect and his deep roots in his birthplace of Wisconsin.

The Frank Lloyd Wright Trail was established in 2017 following the signing of legislation by the governor to honor America's most iconic architect in his home ate. It included the installation of

It included the installation of roadway signage and a public re-lations campaign.

The self-guided automotive trail consists of nine public sites chosen to provide architectural enthusiasts and casual visitors with a ride property to Wright's with a rich exposure to Wright's architectural genius.

Traveling from east to west,

Traveling from east to west, the trail originates on Interstate 94 near the Wisconsin-Illinois border in Racine County, proceeds north to Milwaukee, then west across the state to Madison, onward to Spring Green and ends in Richland Center – the place where it all began in the city of Wright's birth. The trail also includes the following sites: Rurnham Block,

The trail also includes the fol-lowing sites: Burnham Block, Monona Terrace, First Unitarian Society Meeting House, Taliesin and Frank Lloyd Wright Visitor Center, Wyoming Valley School and A.D. German Warehouse.

ECO-J

On July 24, food will be available for purchase from Dragon Pit BBQ and music will be provided by Ethan Keller. Food from Specialty Nacho Queen and Zaytuna's Kitchen will be available on Aug. 10 and 24, resrections.

will be available on Aug. 10 and 24, respectively.
Listen to the folk music of Wattle & Daub on Aug. 10, and Georgia Rae's fiddle on Aug. 24.
Littleport Brewing will have a special brew available, in addition to non-alcoholic option.
Tickets can be purchased at the door or in advance of the event at ecojusticecenter.org.

Voga with Alpacas

Have you heard of "goat yoga"? What about Yoga with Alpacas?

What about Yoga with Alpacas?
"Unlike goat yoga where goats may climb on you while you strike a yoga pose, during. Yoga with Alpacas the alpacas stm-ply meander around you," said MaryLynn Conter Strack, executive director of the Eoo-Justice Center. "Since alpacas are naturally quiet, peaceful animals, they fit perfectly with the meditative nature of yoga."
Yoga and animal lovers age 18 and older can register for upcoming. Saturday classes. Pre-registration required, go to https://ecolosticecenter.org/adult-programs.

About Eco-J

About Eco-J
The Eco-Justice Center is an environmental education center and organic farm founded by Racine Domínican Sisters in 2004. As a mission partner of the Racine Domínicans, Eco-J offers programming for lifelong learning designed to encourage exploration, connect people with sustainable growing practices and promote healthier ecosystems. Eco-J programs encourage participants of all ages to learn from the wisdom of nature.

CLUB CALENDAR

MONDAY

Al-Anone 8 p.m., riely Cross Lutheran Church, 3550 Lathbran Anone, Retired Involved Nurses Group: 1150 a.m., Crysta Bey, 3000 N. Nain St. Lunch is at noon. The cost of membership is $15 and humb is $15. A business meet-ing will follow. For more information or reservations, Call Marge Orth, secretary, 262-884-0742.

TUESDAY

Al-Anon: 9:30-11 a.m., Covenant Pres-byterian Church. 40 Ohio St. Chocolate City Card Club: Senior card club, 12:30 p.m., Burlington Senior Center. 537 E. State St., Burlington. Eu-chre, pinochle, sheepshead, and hand and foot are played, Call 262-716-0329 for information.

Racine Dairy Statesmen A Cappella Chorus: Open guest night, 7-9 p.m. Trin-ity Lutheran Church, 2065 Geneva St. Male and female singers are encouraged to stop by or call Bill Linnenkohl at 262-498-9955

Take Off Pounds Sensibly (TOPS):

Weigh-in, 5:30 p.m., meeting, 6 p.m., Em-maus Lutheran Church, 1925 Summit Ave. Call Georgia Schanstine at 262-633-2196.

WEDNESDAY Caledonia Senior Card Club: Sheeps-head, for ages 55 and older, noon to 3 p.m., Franksville Memorial Park, 9614 North-western Ave., Franksville. For more infor-mation, call 414-856-9550.

western Ave, Fransowne For more manation, call 44-856-9550.
Kiwanis Club of West of Racine:
7-30 a.m., in-person at Living Faith Lutheran Church, 2915 Wright Ave, Kiwanis s an international organization dedicated to serving the children of the world. To attend a meeting, contact Shirley Meyer, membership chair, at 262-260-810 or email aquashirl4 ayahoo.com.

THURSDAY

Racine Art Guilde Scholarship awards potluck dinner, 6-8 p.m., Wustum Mu-seum. 2519 Northwestern Awa. After a meeting, presentations of the awards will be given out and the students will give a short speech and share examples of their art with the group. Racine student award winners are Amanda Gaastra, University of Wisconsin-Parkside; Paige Smith, Car-of Wisconsin-Parkside Paige Smith, Car-hage College, Mickey Mererith, Milwau-kee Institute of Art & Design; and Johanna Currey, University of Wisconsin-Halbwarkee. Senior Card Club: 10 a.m. to noon, North Point Church. 3825 Erie's St. Grear parking lot entrance). The 3 to 13 card game, a form of runmy, is played. An op-tional noon meal is provided for $5. Call 262-639-3078.

262-639-2038. Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 10301: Monthly meeting open to eligible veterans of foreign wars, 4:30 p.m., Angry Broth-er's Pub, 6501 Washington Ave., Mount Pleasant. For more information, call Oli-ver Ponko at 262-880-7399.

FRIDAY Racine Founders Rotary Club: acine Country Club. 2401 North

DAILY/OTHERS Overeaters Anonymous: 7 p.m. Mon-day and Thursday, Living Faith Lutheran Church, 2915 Wright Ave., a free fellow-ship group for all eating disorders using the 12 steps and 12 traditions. For more information call 262-652-5635.

Racine Duplicate Bridge Clubs Each week two ACBL-sanctioned duplicate bridge games are played in Racine — at 22:15 p.m. Monday and Friday at The Lanes.
6501 Washington Ave. Mount Pleasant.
People must have proof of COVID-19 Vaciestics for each Call Mount Vestely rich. cination to play. Call Henry Kensler, club chation to play, can Herry kensel, cruo manager, at 262-652-6173 for reserva-tions. Recent winners are: May 26: George Urquhart-Janet Ur-quhart, first place: Susan Gentz-Robert Gentz, second; Paul Dorsey-Donald Urquhart, third.

: George Urguhart-Janet Urwhart, first place: Susan Gentz-Rob-t Gentz. second; Roseanne Worrell-Vic

every Saturday in Community. Send notices by noon Tuesday via email to Loreen Mohr, Lmohr@ journaltimes.com. Call 262-631-1725 for more information.

LIBRARY PROGRAMS

RACINE PUBLIC LIBRARY

RACINE PUBLIC LIBRARY
RACINE—The Racine Public Library, 75 Seventh SL, is hosting
the following events:

"Compate Basics Windows 11." 5-6 p.m. Tuesday, June 6.

Luch Greak at the Library, 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. Wednesday, June 6.

"Library Basics Windows 11." 5-6 p.m. Tuesday, June 6.

"The Buzz on Beekkepine," 10-11 a.m., Wednesday, June 7. A tendess will library about betweeping and talk about simple ways that they can support home-phese and other pollutators.

"Thought Worss Peetly Workshop," for ages 10 and older, 6-6 p.m., Wednesday, June 7. Featuring poetry readings, writing session and showing wirk. Registrations in exercimental for the period of the 310 Sept. A ron. of stops.

Go to racinelibrary, info/calendar or call 262-636-92b7 for story-times and other orgoning events. The library is open from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m.. Monday through Thursday and from 10 a.m., to 4 p.m. Friday and Saturday. Submit library news to Loreen Mohr. Journal Times community to-ordinator, at Londriggiournalibrascom. The deadline for submission is noon fuesday to be considered for publication the following Saturday.

PI CHAPTER DONATION

FILL SUPPLATION FOR THE PROPERTY OF THE PROPER